ADA: MY MOTHER THE ARCHITECT

Ada: My Mother the Architect is a personal and beautifully crafted documentary about the remarkable life and work of Israeli architect Ada Karmi-Melamede. Through the eyes of her daughter, the film explores Ada's groundbreaking career, creative vision, and the complex relationship between a pioneering woman and her family. Combining architecture, history, and intimate family memories, the film offers a compelling portrait of a woman who challenged convention and forged her own path.

Directed by Yael Melamede, 2024, Israel/USA, 81 Minutes
