

The School of Architecture + Art is pleased to announce a lecture by Andres Gutierrez, architectural designer and President of the Vermont AIA. Join us in person or virtually on Friday, October 8, 2026 at 1pm in the Gallery of Chaplin Hall.

Andres Gutierrez is currently an architectural designer at Freeman French Freeman and serves as president of the Vermont chapter of the American Institute of Architects. He is also the director of AIA Vermont's Emerging Professionals Network and holds a Bachelor of Architecture from the Universidad de Los Andes and a M.P.S in Design Management from Pratt Institute. Gutierrez offers a diverse and international perspective on architecture and has worked in Bogota, Colombia, New York City, and currently in Burlington, Vermont. He will speak to his unique, nonlinear career path and reflections on lessons learned. He is passionate about how architecture can promote innovation and social change.

Virtual Link: Join conversation

About Norwich University

Norwich University is a diversified academic institution that educates traditional-age students and adults in a Corps of Cadets and as civilians. Norwich offers a broad selection of traditional and distance-learning programs culminating in baccalaureate and graduate degrees. Norwich University was founded in 1819 by Captain Alden Partridge of the U.S. Army and is the oldest private military college in the United States of America. Norwich is one of our nation's six senior military colleges and the birthplace of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC). www.norwich.edu

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE + ART NORWICH UNIVERSITY

802.485.2620

158 Harmon Drive
Northfield, VT 05663

norwich.edu/cops/architecture-and-art