

JOB CAPTAIN

Bull Stockwell Allen is a small, award-winning architecture firm specializing in resort, hospitality, and recreation projects in extraordinary locations throughout the United States.

We are seeking an experienced and ambitious Job Captain to join our team to work on the design and planning of hospitality, resort and recreation projects through North America.

WHO YOU ARE

You are on the path to architectural licensure with strong design and documentation skills and a desire to grow within a small architecture firm. With more than 3 years of experience, you are self-motivated and highly organized. You feel confident in your technical skills, particularly in Revit, and in your ability to contribute to a project's success through the various stages of programming, planning, and construction. With strong communication skills, you can successfully coordinate with internal team members and external consultants/clients to provide exceptional service, ensure quality delivery of our brand's vision, and build lasting relationships.

You possess and are excited to further develop your talent for independent problem-solving and creative approaches to assigned tasks. With experience in resort residential and hospitality projects, or arguably applicable experience, you strive to develop your understanding of design and technical solutions associated with the production of top-quality documentation from start to finish.

WHO WE ARE

We are a small, award-winning architecture firm with resort, recreation, and hospitality projects currently in 9 States throughout Northern America. We have been in business for 50+ years, working often with repeat clients that we are fortunate to get to count as friends.
