

4wrđ Diversity in Design Scholarship

$7,500 Grant & Paid Internship | Apply by 3.24.21

E4H Environments for Health Architecture is dedicated to supporting the success and growth of diversity in leadership roles and ensuring equitable treatment of employees throughout the firm. 4wrđ is our initiative “for women, resolve, and diversity” with the goal of increasing diverse leadership and creating awareness for unconscious bias. This initiative helps advance the recruitment, support, and retention of women and people of underrepresented backgrounds in our industry.

4wrđ Diversity in Design Scholarship

With a commitment to supporting diversity and academic excellence, E4H works to improve diversity in the field of healthcare design and health sciences architecture. E4H's goal is to promote architecture and design candidates from underrepresented backgrounds and to celebrate unique perspectives. The $7,500 scholarship is open to candidates that further this initiative and includes a paid internship at E4H.

Eligible candidates are a junior, senior, or graduate student enrolled at an accredited architecture or interior design institution who are willing and able to accept an internship at the firm. Applications are due March 24, 2021.
